NEWPORT.

BY GRANSTON & NORMAN,
127 THAMES STREET.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 28, 1850.

By consequence of inexorable neglect, our New York Mail was carried to Fall River again, yesterday morning.—This is the second time, within a month, that our citizens have been perplexed in this way. When the Mail was transported free of expense, we had no reasonable right to complain of these omissions of duty; but now that they are paid for, by contract with the Government, as they have been the last year, we have a right to insist upon a punctual delivery of the mail. These neglects cause great inconvenience to our citizens, and we are all deprived of our mail matter for at least eight or ten hours. This carelessness will not do, and the difficulty must be remedied.

The mail was brought down, at noon, by the Canonicus.

(3) A man by the name of Homer, boarding in Boston, who was taken up by the watch several nights ago, and committed to jail, attempted to commit suicide, on Wednesday, by cutting his throat; the knife was dull, and he did but little injury. Dr. Turner was called to him. He has been suffering with delirious tremors, for some days past.

(3) Surely we shall have steamboats enough, travelling enough and excitement enough here, this summer. We learn from the Taunton Gazette that a company has been formed in Taunton and Dighton for the purpose of purchasing a steamer to run between Wier village (Taunton) and this place during the sailing season. We should think she might do a good business.

(3) The New York City Guard will arrive on Tuesday next, and take quarters at the Ocean House; the next day they go to Boston, to spend the Fourth, and participate in the celebration there.

(3) We are indebted to Mr. William E. Howland for some delicious strawberries, raised on his own farm, he brings them to market every morning.

(3) The Crescent City sails from New York for Chagres on Monday next; and the Cherokee sails on the 8th, for the same place.

(3) Courtship is often made up of the fact, that the girl calls her beau a noble youth, a hero, a genius, while he calls her a paragon of beauty and gentleness, and so they keep tickling each other until they get married, and then comes the scolding.

(3) There is to be an extensive celebration, on the Fourth, at New London.

(3) The wind and the waves may beat against a rock, planted in a troubled sea, but it remains unmoveable. Be you like that rock, young man. Vice may entice, and the song and the cup may invite. Beware—stand firmly at your post. Let your principles shine forth unobscured. There is glory in the thought that you have resisted temptation and conquered. Your bright example will be to the world, what the light-house upon the seashore is to the mariner. It will guide headlong to the point of virtue and safety.

(3) A bright and beautiful bird is Hope. It comes to us amid the darkness, and sings the sweetest song when our spirits are saddest; and when the lone soul is weary, and longs to pass away, it warbles its sweetest notes, and tightens again the slender fibres of our hearts that Grief has been tearing away.

(3) Be faithful to thy trust, be it small or great; strive to leave a goal, if but tiny impress. Scorn not your allotted track; plant it with trees whose foliage shall shelter birds; water it with streams that shall feed life and cool the parched lips; strew it with houses of refuge, for those who seek justice; stud it with light to illuminate darkness, and let its golden sun warm and cheer the recipients of its ray.

PARDON TO THE MURDERER OF CAPT. HOWARD.—The St. Louis Review of the 14th says that a day previous a pardon was received from Gov. King, for Geo. J. Lansdowne, convicted of the murder of Capt. Howard in September last. This pardon was unconditional and he was immediately set at liberty. Pending insolvency, he was released from the payment of the costs of the prosecution. Lansdowne is undoubtedly indebted to his wife, who interceded with the Governor for his husband's life. He has since refused to live with her.

The deceased, it will be remembered, was shot while talking to Lansdowne's wife in a furniture store in that city.

The doctor who operates for sarcoids, is going to Buffalo to see if he can do something for the Niagara.

BY TELEGRAPH.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON June 26.

SENATE.—The Secretary of the Interior sent to the Senate a communication in answer to the resolution of the 2d Inst.

Mr. Wales presented the proceedings of a meeting in Delaware, in favor of the compromise resolutions.

Mr. Foote offered a resolution inquiring if the President had appointed Mr. Monroe to organize a civil or military government, or had instructed him to aid in forming a government, &c., &c.

Mr. Foote asked for the immediate consideration of this resolution, and boldly charged Gen. Taylor with usurpation. He said that the proceedings were shameful and would bring on civil war.

Mr. Webster and others objected to the consideration of the resolution, when it was on motion, laid over.

House.—Mr. Stanton of Tennessee asked the consent of the House to introduce a resolution of inquiry into the New Mexican affairs.

Mr. Otis objected.

Mr. Bowlin called for the business which has been accumulating upon the speakers table for some time past.

Mr. P. King objected.

Mr. Wentworth called for the order of the day, which was the disputed Iowa election case.

Mr. McCollom moved the postponement of the business for one hour.

The motion was ruled out.

It was then moved that it should be postponed until to-morrow. Which was not agreed to.

Mr. Van Dyke moved to admit the constant, Mr. Miller, to a seat upon the floor to defend his claim, which was agreed to.

The voluminous reports were then taken up and read.

When the reading of the majority report was concluded, Mr. McGaughay called for the minority report. It was read.

Mr. Strong, the chairman of the committee on elections, then took the floor and is now speaking in defense of the majority report.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

The news from New Mexico creates an intense sensation, here, to-day. It encompasses everybody, and summarily knocks on the head all previous calculations.

The Southern extremes are in a terrible rage, "resistance" not only to New Mexico, but California, too, must be made, now, "at all hazards, to the last extremity."

The Texas members are particularly ferocious. Texas they say has been deliberately defrauded, and cheated out of her territory, and she must get it back, by force of arms, if necessary!

Efforts are making to persuade the South generally, to make this their common rallying ground. It is rumored to-day, that members are to meet in caucus, to-night, to deliberate on what is best to be done, in this new exigency.

The speech of Mr. Swayne, and the growing desire that the Missouri line shall be made the basis of compromise, had previously strengthened the South in their opposition to the Compromise, but the advice from New Mexico now binds them closer together.

The Southern members keep cool, and quiet,—but the excitement on all hands is very great. Weather very warm.

SANTA FE, May 25.

There has been a convention of delegates called and held here, which has formed and promulgated a State Constitution for the government of the "State of New Mexico."

The convention assembled on the 15th instant, and the session lasted eight or nine days, in which a Constitution was formed which would go into operation about the 1st of July.

The boundaries of the State were defined, and slavery prohibited! The Constitution was adopted to-day (25th May.) In fifteen days an election takes place for members of the State Legislature.

Two Senators and Representatives in Congress will soon be elected, and efforts will also be made for them to take their seats in Congress.

Mr. S. Vain, Judge Stern, and Henry Corliss are prominent candidates for Governor, and Capt. A. W. Reynolds and Major R. H. Witman for Senators. It is supposed that Hon. Hugh N. Smith, the present delegate in Washington, would be elected to the House of Representatives.

BOSTON, Tuesday, June 25.

George Gilford, Esq., of New York resumed his argument this morning, and was severe in his comments on the testimony given by Professor Morse and Mr. J. F. Foss, to prove the spring to which Prof. House's magnet is attached, a lever, for the sake of establishing an infringement. They were served up together as the authors of a new chapter in Mechanical Philosophy.

Hon. Rufus Choate commenced at 11 o'clock and closed at two, an argument confined to the history, philosophy and law of the case, which has rarely been exceeded for the vivid energy of thought and illustration, and that rapid argumentation and lofty eloquence for which he is distinguished. Without refusing great and due praise to Prof. Morse for his invention, he paid compliments worth a life of labor to Prof. House for his discovery of a new and beautiful principle in Magnetism, as well as his application of it to Printing, by a wonderful machine, and by a style of criticism on the adjudged cases, almost as rapid and luminous as the lightning itself. He apparently left not a shred of Law, English or American, in favor of complainant's bill.

Mr. Curtis follows this afternoon for the plaintiff. He has up-hill work to contend with to seal the fortifications established by his learned opponents.

TORONTO, Tuesday, June 25.

Last night the Legislative Assembly had under their consideration a set of resolutions proposed by Mr. Baileton, in detail, a complete scheme of Republican Government. After a debate the House voted the resolutions Republican and Revolutionary, by 46 to 13.

A NEW TRANSLATION.—A rich old maiden lady, of the west end of the town, who was notorious for her bad temper, and for perpetually scolding her servants, having died about three weeks since, the hatchment was put up against her house, under which was the following common motto—"Requiescat in pace!" The cook inquired of the coachman the meaning of these words. Coachman, proud of this appeal to his scholarship, after pondering over them for a moment, answered, "Oh! the motto, in English, is—"Rest quiet, eat in peace."

WASHING, BLEACHING AND CLEANSING FLUID.—The greatest labor-saving article yet discovered. By its use washing machines and boards are entirely dispensed with, and not one quarter of the labor is required to do the washing of a family.

The Fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the most delicate fabric.

The expense is not more than that of the soap ordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the great wear and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hand rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pounding barrel, is wholly avoided, because nothing is thus made. It is emphatically the female's friend.

Wanted to give perfect satisfaction, or the money will be refunded.
